

Where is the Unicorn?

There's no room for loverbees no more
There's no room for butterbirds no more

Everybody's seeking the conform
Everyone sticks to what is the norm
Where is the unicorn, where is the unicorn?

Where is the unicorn, where is the unicorn?

No one talks with animals no more
No one talks about cannibals no more

Everybody's seeking the conform
Everyone sticks to their own little uniform
Where is the unicorn, where is the unicorn?

Where is the unicorn, where is the unicorn?
